Ross Orlando's Tahoe Spotlight

Legendary West coast hip-hop rapper, Snoop Dogg -one of the biggest and most popular in the World - gave a sold out crowd of 1,900, of all ages, a great party to enjoy at MontBleu's showroom. The Doggfather wore a LA Dodgers jacket, dark glasses for a while and his classic mic with snoops name on it and it's all shiny with bling-bling. There are other rappers that rhyme along with him, and a DJ. A mix of songs from his over 20 year career included, "Drop it like it's Hot", "Who am I"(What's my name?), and "Gin and Juice". Doggs cousin Warren G came out and rapped with songs from the early 90's. Snoop knows how to create a party atmosphere and there were smiles throughout the entire showroom. His new album "Doggumentary" comes out in March. He's been on all the TV talk shows, guest spots on best sellers, like Katy Perry's number one hit "California Gurls", movies, TV shows, Zynga's Mafia Wars game site, commercials and more. Snoop said peace and love as he left the Tahoe stage.

Another popular sold out show at MontBleu was Rebellion, a four piece Reggae band from Santa Barbara, along with special guest bands. This all ages show had a cool vibe with their roots-reggae sound. Coming next in the MontBleu showroom is, Bassnectar, February 11 and 12, and Kevin Nealon and Friends, February 26. Nealon is a Tahoe favorite for continuous laughs. From years on "Saturday Night Live", to the hit show "Weeds" on Showtime, and being a favorite on TV talk shows, Kevin knows how to keep comedy coming. He's also a big crowd favorite at the Celebrity golf Tournament at Edgewood. He's cool to talk to and I'm glad he loves Tahoe.

Opal Ultra Lounge at MontBleu has fun nights from Wednesdays to Sundays that include drink specials, body painting, sexy go-go dancers, cool DJ music and a sexy lingerie contest on Sundays.

Harrah's continues to bring a variety of entertainment to their showroom. Toad the Wet Sprocket was a cool show that included their hit songs "All I Want", (from 1991) and "Walk the Ocean". Lead singer Glen Phillips is casual, calm and witty as their front man. Coming to Harrah's is a huge Tahoe favorite, Tower of Power, February 5. This high energy 10 piece funk and soul band creates a sound that makes you feel good all over. Favorites like, "What is Hip?", "Soul Vacation", "So Very Hard to Go", "Down to the Night Club", "You're Still a Young Man", "Don't Change Horses", just to name a few tasty treats. For over 40 years, Emilio Castillo on tenor sax and vocals and Stephen "Doc" Kupka on baritone sax have kept this funky soulful band together. Roger Smith on keyboards and vocals played Tahoe for many years and Tower asked him to join the band over a decade ago. Smith has told me how happy he's been touring and recording with them. He has his own jazz CD's also. I've known Emilio since the early 80's. He even talked about my brother and I on Howie's morning show on KRLT 93.9, it was pretty cool. This is a must see show! Righteous Brother Bill Medeleay is February 19. The Dan Band (from the Hangover movie) is February 25. They mix humor with cool music. February 26 is Edward Sharpe and The Magnetic Zeros, Robin Trower is March 5.

Vex Night Club with sexy dancers, cool DJ music, aerial acts and drink specials always goes off big on Friday and Saturday. Arthur Hervey at Center Stage on Friday and Saturday nights always creates a "Party with Arty".

There's Cabo Wabo at Harvey's with fun entertainment every night to enjoy. The Improv with new comics each week and Howie as the host is always good for laughs.

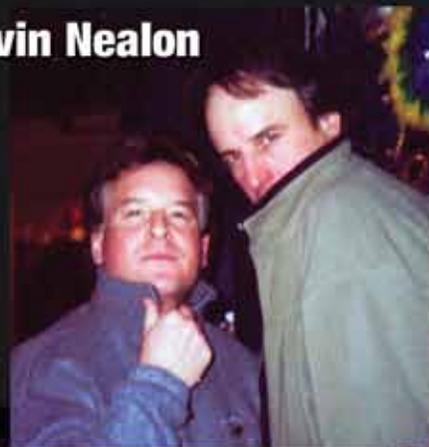

Whiskey Dick's has a mix of music to check out and good drink specials. The Beacon has cocktail snowshoe races February 12 and live music. Check out all the Super Bowl parties in our ads. The Fresh Ketch has live music you'll enjoy, Brothers Bar and Grill has great food and drink specials and Rail Jam Parties. Fire and Ice has a happy hour from 4-6 that's new. Anthony from Vinny's Pizzeria and Pasta House has tasty pasta and meatballs and pizza you'll like. The Tahoe lake view at Blue Water Bistro with food and drinks is a delight. Music at The Flight Deck at the Airport with good food and drink specials is popular. There are great golf rates at Genoa Lakes Golf Club and Resort. Orchid's Thai Cuisine also has a restaurant at Stateline next to Sushi pier.

And remember, live it up. Have fun, you're in Tahoe!

Another Late Night with LateNiteBilly

Spring Fever is in the air and it's the dead of Winter, hmmm. I'm a 15 year veteran of this and I will still never figure out the weather in Tahoe! I do know though it has been a great Winter for shows! Snoop Dogg was definitely my pick of the month and I was honored to help out with the afterparty sponsored by Kush Organics. It doesn't get better than hanging with true Hip-Hop legends Warren-G, Daz & Kurrup and the rest of the best! I might not partake in the festivities, but I definitely know how to party in my own regard!

I just got off a four day mini-tour with Mickey Avalon and yes - it WAS an adventure as hanging out with Mickey ALWAYS is! He performed all his anthems as well a bunch of new material and rocked the crowd every night! By about the time you read this, Dead Kennedys will have performed at Whiskey Dicks, and if the club is still standing after that here is what's in store for the rest of the month both at Whiskey Dicks, and a couple all-ages shows at my personal new favorite Venue up in North Lake, the Frank Sinatra Showroom at Cal Neva Resort. It is said to be haunted by Frank Sinatra's ghost himself - all the more reason for me to want to go back and check it out! I am VERY intrigued by such stories and definitely a believer.

SLT DUB is on its second month running and the first one was definitely a hit. Dubstep is taking over and we do it the first Friday of every month at Whiskey Dicks. Friday, February 4th we have a live PA with Black Rock City Allstars plus DJ Arson from San Francisco and DJ Billy Wonka from Las Vegas, NV. SLT DUB!

Next up, we have a couple more shows at Whiskey Dicks. On Saturday, Feb. 19th we have the Starving Millionaires. Starving Millionaire's are a California Reggae / Rock trio signed to Long Beach Records. They have played Tahoe many times, opening for various bands and are now ready to showcase their own show in support of their new album, "It ain't Pretty". The following week you can catch the return of Audiodub on Saturday, Feb. 26th at Whiskey Dicks. Opening the show is Lou Dog Trio - A Tribute to Sublime.

All-ages shows are few and far between in this town but that is about to change. Here are two Hip-Hop showcases you don't want to miss. Celebrating Presidents Day weekend, on Sunday, Feb. 20th at Cal Neva Resort we have People Under the Stairs and Mystik Journeymen (Sunspot Jonz and Luckyiam from Living Legends) and on Thursday, March 3rd we have the "Back to the Future Tour" featuring Mistah FAB, Eligh from Living Legends, Opio from Hieroglyphics / Souls of Mischief, The Bayliens, Dreda Dre and a whole lot more. Did I mention a surprise guest from another member of Living Legends?! Both shows, all-ages are welcome and there is a full bar for the 21+. This is one of the BEST venues around the whole

Lake to see a show!

I'm excited to tell you about one of my new favorite bands, Delhi 2 Dublin. They are from Vancouver, Canada and create a heady, energetic mash-up of Bhangra, Celtic, Dub Reggae and Electronica. "Combine the Indian drums (tabla, dhol) and sitars of the subcontinent with driving Irish fiddles, and toe-tapping Celtic progressions, keep the dynamics fluid with bhangra world beat soundscapes and you've got Delhi 2 Dublin. The Vancouver-based electronic world fusion quintet's first studio release surprises most when the diverse sounds ooze together." If that doesn't make you at least intrigued enough to check them out, I don't know what to say! Catch them on Wednesday, March 9th at Mo's Place and see for yourself. Till then, you can find out more by logging in to www.Delhi2Dublin.com

As always Tahoe, thanks for all the love and support! Keep the Vibe Alive! ~LateNiteBilly

COMEDY FROM THE MOUNTAIN

Howie Nave

I can't believe I recently passed the 10-year mark up here in South Lake Tahoe and I bet you're thinking, "He's been up here that long? Feels longer doesn't it?" In that time not only have I experienced a number of people come and go up here but a number return as well. Yeah! It's true what you hear about those who returned realized that even though the job market was kind of sucky, the politics and state agencies up here sucking more, the tourists getting to be a pain at times and everybody buying stuff off of the mountain anyway because it was cheaper you found yourself coming back to the top of the mountain! Why? Maybe because it was a little colder 'down there' than the coldest night up here on a clear night in the middle of winter that's why. I think people like commiserating together because that way you don't feel like the only one going through a tough spell but don't realize that until you are far away from here. Then again I'm sure there are lots who did leave this place and went on to become more successful and richer in the process but when it comes to that time in your life where you had the best times you know they're thinking of Lake Tahoe and not whatever metropolis they're residing in at the present time. We won't really know until we see that person's long-forgotten face up here again. Oh yeah, Happy VD too! That would be Valentine's Day unless you caught something.

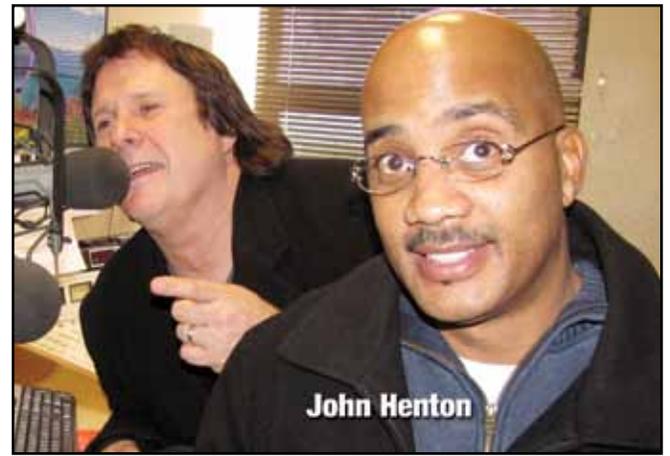

Until that time does arrive might I suggest checking out comedian/actor Allan Havey. Believe it or not if the planets have aligned and everything is going perfectly well in the universe Havey will find a way to argue with you that it's not. That's what makes Allan so damn funny: he is still questioning everything. According to Allan, "I try to take the best things out of my club work, fit it together, and describe what I'm about, who I am." Over the years he has appeared on television acting on Seinfeld, The Louie Show and Curb Your Enthusiasm on HBO. I enjoyed the short-lived, "Free Ride" on FOX because it utilized much of his improvisational skills. His quick thinking abilities is what landed him on Ashton Kutcher's reality-based TV show, "Punk'd." He is so convincing it's tough to tell when he's being sincere or not. On the big screen he has appeared in the movies "Internal Affairs" with Richard Gere, "Checking Out" with Jeff Daniels, "Rounders" with Matt Damon, "Wild Things Part 2: The Glades" with Isaiah Washington, "Hancock" starring Will Smith and again with Matt Damon in "The Informant!." Havey's has been a regular on "The Late Show with David Letterman," "Late Night With Conan O'Brien," "Comedy Central and has even appeared on Comic Relief. I might add that you can also hear him every Monday morning here in Tahoe on my little radio show in the morning ("Howie's Morning Rush") when we do our movie segment called, "The Have vs. The Nave" on KRLT around 9:15am in the morning. Shameless plug? Hell yeah like they pay me to write for this rag? Check Havey out with funny white guy John DiResta February 2nd through the 6th.

Another favorite up here is John Henton. We can't get enough of Henton even though by the time he leaves Tahoe he has had enough of us. He's easily one of my top 10 favorite comics I have ever worked with. He's also very realistic about his career and how being a comic is like riding a roller coaster with it's peaks and valleys. Henton sums up his career best by saying, "I once played Overton on the hit television series, "Living Single" and also played Milsap on "The Hughleys" but now I'm an out of work comedian." He may not be a regular on the sitcom circuit but he's doing very well on the comedy club and recently the cruise ship circuit. John has a lot of interesting 'firsts' in his career like being one of the very last comics to have appeared on The Tonight Show when Johnny Carson. Soon after he appeared on that same show when Jay Leno took over (the first time around before Conan). I don't why Henton thinks he has hit a plateau he is a brilliant writer and has worked with some of the best in this whacky business. His television credits Henton started out on "The Bob Hope Young Comedian's Special" in addition to starring in his own half-hour comedy special for Showtime called "John Henton: Comedy With An Attitude." He was also on Comedy Central's "Premium Blend." As mentioned earlier John is probably best known for his FOX TV series, "Living Single" which co-starred Queen Latifah. The show received stellar ratings and TV Guide selected Henton's character as one of the "break out" characters of the season. He also received further accolades when he signed on to play the character of "Milsap" on the television series, "The Hughleys." That show gave Henton a loyal following and when "The Hughleys" moved to UPN during its third it was the anchoring program for the new network. Soon after John Henton's body of work was recognized with an NAACP "Image Award" nomination for Best Supporting Actor in a Comedy Series! John was really moved by that honor and it's plainly obvious why he would be honored this way. Henton has this broad appeal that easily goes beyond the characters he plays on television. His comedy is the same way captivating his audiences with his observational and topical humor. To further secure his appeal Henton is a regular on a variety of different programs that range from being on ABC-TV's "The View" to TBS' "Late Night With Conan O'Brien" and numerous other late night talk shows. As he says, "I like to represent! South Lake Tahoe what, what!" He's here with the very 3 Blonde Mom Joanie Fagan the week of February 16th through the 20th as well. She is amazingly funny on stage (and off) so this week is an especially good one. We'll chat more with her on my radio show because this publication is tight on space and they're never online or at least my portion of the tag isn't represented here online.

Howie Nave is the host/emcee/manager of The Improv @ Harveys every Wednesday through Sunday and also hosts his own morning show ("Howie's Morning Rush") on 93.9 KRLT radio Monday through Friday from 6 to 10am. He's also on Lake Tahoe Television doing interviews with comedians and film reviews during the segment called, "Nave's Raves." He also writes a weekly comedy column in Action Magazine and gets the same pay as he does here whoring himself out for The Lake Tahoe Entertainer. Oh yeah, his DVD, "Live From Lake Tahoe" is currently available after his shows nightly or you can order a copy on his website, www.Howienave.com and make sure you check him out on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/howie.nave>.

Fly Fishing

Victor Babbit

The weather sure has been nice considering the lashing we received in November and December! I am not complaining because the fishing has been pretty darn good and it looks like it is going to stay that way for a while. February usually brings the Stone fly and the Baetis as well as the Midges hatching in abundance! We have already seen some really nice fish caught and released on East Walker and the Truckee Rivers in California and Nevada. Most fish have been stuck with really small nymphs but a few have been taken with Stoneflies and Streamers. As February progresses the bugs should get bigger and the Trout should continue eating them!

Some of my favorite fishing of the year is about to happen on the Lower Truckee River, the flows are just about right and the Baetis should start happening in a big way soon! The fish should be healthy with all of the water we have had and I am sure they will be hungry as well. Look for fish eating off of the surface on cloudy days and more than likely they will be eating size 16 or 18 BWO's. The Squalla Stones should follow closely towards the end of the month! When Nymphing this time of the year I like fishing a Golden Stone Nymph with a Baetis Nymph below it and occasionally a larger Midge imitation. Streamers will take a few fish and sometimes the larger ones if you are diligent.

The East Walker River has better flows at this time of year than I have seen in a long time (55 CFS). I do not know what they will do with them over the next month but if they stay at this level or go up the fishing will be excellent in Nevada and California. The bugs are a bit smaller on the East Walker then they are on the Truckee River and we are usually fishing size 20-22 nymphs with the occasional dry fly session as well. Some anglers like the Streamer in lighter colors and with the higher flows can sometimes produce one of those bigger fish. Baetis, Midges and the occasional Stonefly Nymph and don't forget to take a few San Juan Worms with you.

Pyramid Lake has been fishing fairly well lately and should get better as we get closer to Spring! Indicator Nymphing works but throwing a bugger and a beetle, I think, is a lot more fun! Use heavy leaders and get your bugs to the bottom! You never know when the Big One will bite with a few 18 pound fish caught over the last couple of months!

Ice Fishing is really good right now with Red Lake doing the best and Caples producing a few fish as well. Jigging a Kastmaster has been good with worms being a close second if you want to just hang out and wait for the bite! Bring a chair, an Auger, a shovel and a strainer to clean out the hole and all your normal fishing tackle! Lately sun block wouldn't be a bad idea either. I have heard of a few big fish being pulled through the ice so hang on when you get a bite!

For more information on these fisheries or any others in our area, give us a call or stop by the shop! We will get you set up with whatever you might need for a fun day of fishing! We have guides available for Ice Fishing as well as Fly Fishing all winter long, take a break from skiing and enjoy a little fishing with the family. We are located at 2705 Lake Tahoe Blvd next to Midas Mufflers and about 3.5 miles from the Casinos. 530-541-8208

PRE presents more great concerts and events on the south shore this winter. For the first time in his career, DJ Sharam of Dish Dish (www.sharam.com) will debut at Blu Nightclub on Friday, February 18, President's Weekend. Known simply by his first name SHARAM to the world of popular culture, Sharam Tayebi is a Grammy award-winning producer, songwriter, recording artist and DJ. His 18-year career has brought him to the world's largest music venues and in the studio Sharam remains one of only few dance acts who can effortlessly navigate between the nocturnal world of dance music with underground hits like "Don't Say A Word" and "Be The Change" while scoring Top 20 Hits internationally with "PATT (Party All The Time)" and "The One" featuring Daniel Bedingfield. He is also the driving force behind the legendary Yoshitoshi label in Washington DC using it as a vehicle to promote newly discovered talent from DC and around the world.

After a bountiful career as part of Deep Dish, Sharam became a solo artist in 2008 with the release of his UK top ten hit "PATT (Party All The Time)" — a rigorous rework of an old Eddie Murphy record which was produced by B — followed by his collaboration with Daniel Bedingfield for "The One" and finally his debut double album, Get Wild in 2009. Always with the ambition to be diverse and progressive, Sharam collaborated with the likes of P. Diddy, Tommy Lee, and Chuck D., and even included a Patsy Cline vocal sample to complete this record with its Morricone-inspired Spaghetti Western theme. A serious movie buff, Sharam also made his directorial debut for the album's single "She Came Along" featuring Kid Cudi. Ticket are only $12 in advance, and $15 day of.

Starting Saturday, Feb 19 of President's weekend, Blu Nightclub and PRE will present Reggae Night. Some of the hottest dance Reggae bands in the country will tour through South Lake Tahoe at Blu Nightclub. Check www.montbleuresort.com for the most up-to-date band information.

Funnyman Kevin Nealon, a "Saturday Night Live" legend and celebrated actor of "Weeds" is set to hit MontBleu Resort Casino & Spa, Saturday, Feb. 26, for a special one-night stand at South Lake Tahoe.

Currently Nealon can be seen in his role as the infamous character, Doug Wilson, on the Golden Globe award-nominated Showtime series "Weeds." Nealon honed his craft to perfection with nine years of comedic mastermind as one of the longest running cast members on NBC's "Saturday Night Live" (1986-1995). His reoccurring role as an anchor on "Weekend Update" made the sketch a show standard while his unique and hilarious characters "The Subliminal Man" and "Hans and Franz" go down in comedic history.

Nealon's movie career highlights include his appearance in "Anger Management," opposite Jack Nicholson; as well as roles in "Daddy Day Care" with Eddie Murphy; "Good Boy" with Molly Shannon; and the now cult classic, "Grandma's Boy" with Jonah Hill and Nick Swardson. He also can be seen starring alongside Adam Sandler in "Eight Crazy Nights," "The Wedding Singer" and "Happy Gilmore." Nealon appeared in his first one hour stand up special, "Kevin Nealon: Now Hear Me Out!" which aired on Showtime to rave reviews and in the Spring of 2008. Nealon added author to his overflowing humorous tool belt writing a book entitled, "Yes, You're Pregnant But What About Me?." Nealon will be packing in the laughs with an arsenal from his humorous past to back him up during this one night only show at Lake Tahoe.

Opening up for Kevin Nealon is Kira Soltanovich. You can catch Kira on Showtime in the critically acclaimed comedy special Hot Tamales Live. Recently Kira shot her own half hour comedy special for the Showtime network called Here Comes Trouble. She's a recurring character on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno as the voice of "The Phony Photo Booth." And she's a joke writer for the comedy legend Joan Rivers on the TV Land hit How'd You Get So Rich? A Series Regular for four seasons on the Oxygen and nationally syndicated show, Girls Behaving Badly, she has also appeared as a sketch player on such shows as a Jimmy Kimmel Live and Fresh Baked Videos on Spike. Also, listen for Kira as the voice of "Carla", in the animated series, Iggy Cool. You can catch her on two FOX shows, Red Eye and Reality Binge as a correspondent. Tickets are $25/$40/$50. Guests will see Nealon and Soltanovich action inside the MontBleu Theater with the show at 9 p.m. To purchase tickets, call the MontBleu ticket office at 775-588-3515 or at 1-800-648-3353. Tahoe South Shore Winter Snow Blasts

LAKE TAHOE SOUTH SHORE PACKAGES BIG-TIME ENTERTAINMENT WITH BIG-TIME SKIING AND SNOWBOARDING

South Lake Tahoe Combines the Best Nightlife with the Best Snow

As if record November and December snowfall weren't enough to whet the appetites of powder-hungry skiers and snowboarders, Heavenly Mountain Resort and Harrah's Lake Tahoe came together today to announce Tahoe South Winter Snow Blast (www.Itsnowblast.com), a monthly, winter concert series combining on-mountain festivities with world-class, nighttime entertainment in a package that only Lake Tahoe South Shore can provide.

Tahoe South Winter Snow Blasts are scheduled once per month starting in January, stretching through the ski and snowboard season's end in April. Cutting-edge acts including Edward Sharpe & The Magnetic Zeros, Dawes, M. Ward, Cold War Kids, The Dan Band and more, will bring their popular, groundbreaking sounds to the Harrah's South Shore Room, which is celebrating over 50 years of entertaining visitors to Lake Tahoe.

On the mountain, Heavenly will hold amateur slopestyle ski and snowboard events on the new Ante Up terrain park on the Saturdays leading off each Snow Blast weekend. Located under the Tamarack Express Chairlift, Ante Up is a true slopestyle park comprised entirely of recycled features including tractor tires, water tanks, corrugated and snowmaking pipes. Heavenly will also have live music at the new Tamarack Lodge at the top of Heavenly's Gondola.

"Nowhere else in the ski world does a marriage of on-mountain excitement and off-mountain entertainment like this exist," said John Wagon, Heavenly's vice-president of marketing and sales. "You get big snow, big mountains and incredible views of Lake Tahoe combined with high-energy Nevada nights and all-night entertainment. No other destination can offer such a unique experience."

"It's great to partner with Heavenly in 2011 for these four exciting weekends," says Glenn Cademartori, Harrah's regional vice president of marketing. "Combining an already-incredible snowpack, a wide range of activities on the mountain, 24-hour casino action and the hottest new acts performing in Harrah's South Shore Room, the Winter Snow Blasts will definitely be the 'don't miss' weekends this season."

Tahoe South Winter Snow Blast Entertainment Schedule:

The Dan Band - Harrah's South Shore Room - February 25

Edward Sharpe & The Magnetic Zeros - Harrah's South Shore Room - February 26
