Ross Orlando's Tahoe Spotlight

Since the death of Jerry Garcia from the Grateful Dead 16 years ago, Phish has helped fill the big shoes that were left as the biggest jam band in the world today. Around 8,500 tickets for each show, Tuesday and Wednesday, sold out faster than any outdoor show at Harvey's in over 10 years of the concert series. Phish was on a hiatus for about 5 years and this was the year to perform altogether again. From Vermont, they first started back in 1983. They blend many music styles that include rock, bluegrass, reggae, blues, country, jazz, folk, funk and more. Each concert is original in the songs they perform. They have a huge dedicated following, that come from all over the USA. Opening night, record crowds of over 8,800 danced, sang, and smiled with excitement, as Stateline, Nevada was turned into a Phish party. "Party Time" was the opening song and with the girls wearing wild hats and outfits, and carrying fish cutouts on sticks, made for a Mardi Gras and festival feeling. Lead singer and guitar player, Trey Anastasio, was smiling when he hit the stage to begin the show. They played cover songs that included, Elton John's "Rocket Man" and new and classic Phish songs. The fans drive and fly in from all over America to see their shows. They also had a Web cast of both shows for their fans. The light show on stage was unreal, so cool. Everyone was friendly and there were no problems according to the Harrah and Harvey's staff. There were more Phish after parties around town than any other show before. It was like a Phish festival. Maybe next year we can go Phishing again.

Another party atmosphere was the Slightly Stoopid and Rebelution show at Harvey's Outdoor Arena. The reggae sounds of Rebelution from Santa Barbara, got the energetic crowd going. Another California reggae/rock sound from Slightly Stoopid, kept the crowd partying. They had Karl Denson on sax to elevate their horn section. Miles Doughty and Lyle McDonald, traded off on vocals with this very versatile band that also has a ska sound. Steve Miller Band and Dave Mason brought classic hits from the 60's, 70's and early 80's to Harvey's also. Mason has played with so many greats including Hendrix. Miller's songs are so classic over the years, it was fun to hear them in person in Tahoe. "Jet Airliner", "Take the Money and Run", "Swingtown", "Fly Like an Eagle", "Living in the USA" and the hits went on and on that they played. Everyone commented that the sound was perfect, a real treat. Catch Sammy Hagar and the Wabos September 10 for the last concert at Harvey's. Sammy always brings a party to Tahoe.

Harrah's Showroom has a variety of music with Nathan Owens Motown after Dark September 1-3. War September 17th. Average White Band September 24th. Chris Isaak October 1st. These are great shows I've seen and Isaak is very versatile with his music style and brings humor to his shows also. He's from Stockton, California, and you'll enjoy his show—he's very cool.

Horizon's Golden Cabaret has Bethany Owen's "One Voice", known as the woman with "1,001 voices". For over a year, Owens has treated Tahoe audiences with celebrity voices and impersonations that include Marilyn Monroe, Dolly Parton, Shania Twain, Joan Rivers, Cher, Patsy Cline and Judy Garland's dancing routine from the movie "Easter Parade" with Robert Maloon as the Fred Astaire character. Director, producer and husband Jim Whirlow, is very proud of his very talented wife Bethany. This is a great variety show that mixes humor and very impressive singing of stars that you'll enjoy. The Martini Lounge at Horizon is new that includes cool piano playing as you sip your martini on Friday and Saturday.

MontBleu has new rock stars, Thirty Seconds to Mars on September 4th. From world tours to Tahoe, hits songs "Yesterday" and "The Kill", this show will rock. Wolfgang Gartner September 18th. Art of Flight September 19th., Ziggy Marley September 25th. Ziggy puts on a great show and yes party time fun.

The Improv at Harvey's and Cabo Wabo is always a good time. Straw Hat Pizza and Sport Bar is new at Harvey's and has great food and drink specials with lots of TV's. The Naked Fish Sushi and Lounge has live music, new appetizers, food favorites and unique drink specials. Hot August Nights at MontBleu with classic cars was very cool. Sunday Pool Party with DJ, bikini contest, and $1 drinks, will be a big blowout on September 4th at MontBleu.

Tahoe Derby Dames are always fun times to check out. Ski Run Marina has all your summer activities to choose from. And remember, EntertainerTahoe.com, it's your friend online. "Have fun, you're in Tahoe"!

Wonderful West Shore Sightseeing Cruise

Join us for an afternoon of the finest cruising on Lake Tahoe aboard our classic 80' motor yacht, the Safari Rose. Of course we see Emerald Bay, but there's so much more. On this relaxing narrated tour we travel close along the Historic California west shore and see Fleur-du-Lac, the famed estate where the movie "Godfather II" was filmed, the old brothel at Homewood, historic Chambers Landing and the Ehrman mansion at Sugar Pine Point. Bring your camera and binoculars, this is Lake Tahoe sightseeing at its finest!

COMEDY FROM THE MOUNTAIN

Howie Nave

For some time now I've been lobbying to have summer extended for at least another six weeks to make up for the spring shortfall we had this year. The weather has been so nice I just would like to see it stay that way until November and then a week before Thanksgiving let it snow! That's right you heard me. That way we get a dry Halloween, the ski resorts can get psyched for the tourists coming up for the Thanksgiving holiday and just see what goes from there. I know it's selfish but I still need to fix part of the roof where the shingles peeled off when all that snow and ice slid off so the extra six weeks would really come in handy. As Captain Picard would say, "Make it so!"

One comic who's been here every season is Rocky LaPorte. Rock is getting ready to shoot a television pilot with legendary comedic actor Tim Allen. This year's been pretty good for Rock as they continue to show "The Godfathers of Comedy" on Showtime. On the big screen he was in the Disney remake of "The Shaggy Dog" (which co-starred Tim Allen) in addition to another Tim Allen movie, "Crazy On the Outside" co-starring Sigourney Weaver, Ray Liotta and Kelsey Grammer. And directed by its star, Tim Allen.

He hails from Chicago but now lives in southern California. When not touring Rocky volunteers to do a lot of charity events. Some of his favs include St. Jude's for Children, NFL charities, benefits for the homeless, cancer research and various police and fire dept. fundraisers. He's also been overseas a number of times entertaining the troops over in Iraq.

Lately though when he's been home it's all about the gardening. I didn't realize how into gardening he really was until I brought it up backstage the last time he was here. We've both been exchanging gardening tips to one another, sharing photos of what we've planted and even given each other tips when it comes to growing stuff. He'll send over pics of an arrangement of flowers he planted from this past summer while I recently sent him pics of some Jeffery Pine and Douglas Fir that I planted last year and a new Sequoia this year. When I mentioned this to comedian Graham Elwood on the radio he said, "It's nice having two old ladies sharing a hobby that they can do to stay busy in their latter years." Appearing with Rocky is Ron Morey. Ron is a unique talent and very energetic. He's performed overseas working for the USO in places such as Italy, Greece, Bahrain, and Germany. Ron has also been featured on NFL Films, PBS, A&E and even on Snoop Dogg's MTV show, "DoggyFizzle Televizzle." He's opened for such diverse acts as George Lopez, Tracy Morgan, Ellen DeGeneres and D. L. Hughley. A fine show indeed this week through September 4th.

As the original winner of NBC's "Last Comic Standing" Dat Phan finds his way back to Tahoe after working non-stop now for 22 weeks! Dat's made numerous television appearances including "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno," "The Family Guy" voiceover, and "The Tyra Banks Show." His DVD "Dat Phan Live" was released last year (and is available from Amazon.com) and his CD "You Touch, You Buy" is currently available on iTunes. As far as the big screen Dat was in "Cellular" and Preproduction is under way for his next project, "Yellow Fever." Dat's been in this DirecTV commercial called The Whale commercial. He walks through a Asian themed abode with a giant Koi fish, giant Panda, and tall women as he talks of his whale status at the casino. It's pretty funny and he's getting a lot of airplay out of it. Dat's comedy still relies a lot from his family which makes sense given that he has so many brothers and sisters. "That's why so much of my material is based on my mom and family and eighty-five percent of my material is true." He also offers up some poignant insights into his cultural background poking fun of the ridiculous stereotypes and shares that experience of being a regular American guy within a Vietnamese heritage. Performing with Dat is newcomer Quinn Dahle. Going to be a very nice and diverse week with these two September 7th through the 11th.

Coming up September 21st through the 25th is New Yorker Nick Griffin. He had been on the west coast ever since I can remember but relocating to the east coast five years ago Nick's been on "The Late Show with David Letterman" already six times. Just think if head moved there (New York) earlier huh? Nick's insights to some might be a bit cynical but to us it makes complete sense. When he has the time he'll post on Facebook some interesting fact or tidbit about monster history on this day and then add a commentary that puts the event in perspective. He is also a first rate screen writer having written over a dozen of movies with a sci-fi/horror slant to them. In short Griffin is a must-see and if I had my way would be here at least every six weeks to remind us how superficial some people are on this planet. A comic like Nick doesn't just happen overnight. No. It took years of angst to perfect what some might call the 'anti-comic' comedian. He was a staff writer for on the Keenen Ivory Wayans Show in 1996 and later became the head writer for the Bobby Slayton & Sue Murphy morning radio show. Nick's comedy is appreciated not just here within our shores but also overseas as well. His style first caught the attention of British actress Lucy Davis ("Shaun of the Dead") BBC's "The Office" with Ricky Gervais) and from there European doors opened for Nick. After that things just took off and when he returned to the States was a regular on Comedy Central. Nick keeps an online journal and it's the best way to gauge his career and his health (sometimes the two intersect). One of my favorite entries by Nick: "Things have been okay lately, which is huge for me, because I always expect the worst." Appearing with Griffin is another east coaster, John DiResta.

Howie Nave is the host/emcee/manager of The Improv @ Harveys every Wednesday through Sunday and also hosts his own morning show ("Howie's Morning Rush") on 93.9 KRLT radio Monday through Friday from 6 to 10am. He's also on Lake Tahoe Television doing interviews with comedians and film reviews during the segment called, "Nave's Raves." He also writes a weekly comedy column in Action Magazine and gets the same pay as he does here whoring himself out for The Lake Tahoe Entertainer: nada.. Oh yeah, his DVD, "Live From Lake Tahoe" is currently available after his shows nightly or you can order a copy on his website, www.Howienave.com and make sure you check him out on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/howie.nave>.

The Woman of 1001 Voices & Faces - Bethany Owen

Entering stage left, wreathed in red lights, the blonde bombshell seductively takes the stage at the Horizon Casino in the Golden Cabaret Showroom as Marilyn Monroe and breaks into "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend." Bethany Owen imbues Marilyn Monroe and hundreds of other notorious singers, comedians and celebrities—from Minnie Pearl to Shania Twain, Hillary Clinton to Sarah Palin and Katie Couric, Joan Rivers, Madonna and Cher—with a wit that's both slightly cutting and affectionate.

The Huntington Beach, CA-based impressionist has become the world's most prolific female in this male-dominated field by combining spot-on recreations of celebs' vocal tics and facial expressions with lyrics and humorous bits that cleverly spoof the originals' personas. Check the segment with Martha Stewart singing "Jailhouse Rock" for hilarious proof.

Owen's been playing her "One Voice" one-woman show—with crucial support by husband/director/producer Jim Whirlow—at the Horizon Casino Resort – Lake Tahoe since opening in May 2010, making it a 15 month run to date.

Over the past 8 years since the conception and premier opening of the show at the legendary Cinegrill Cabaret on Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood, CA - "One Voice" has toured out of the Los Angeles area to some far off distance places such as Hawaii, Germany, Canuan Island in the South Caribbean, Aruba, India and everything in-between around the US and Canada. As an example, when not touring, Owen will do commercial LA voice-over TV and radio projects, specialty celebrity voices for companies like IGT in recording character voices for their newest electronic casino gaming slot machines, to voice-over work for shows like MTV's Celebrity Deathmatch, their hit celebrity claymation TV show or live interview appearances on shows like Jimmy Kimmel Live!

But it's her stage show "One Voice" that most impressively demonstrates Owen's staggering range. She typically inhabits 50 characters during a 90-minute performance, while doing all of her own costume and wig changes onstage. A whirlwind of musical theater, comedy and dance, "One Voice" is an impressive spectacle that appeals to many demographics. It's the culmination of this Orange County woman's indefatigable ambition to capture a unique niche in show business—a destiny she claims to have desired since she was 3.

A lithe, long-limbed redhead, Owen started taking ballet lessons at age 6 while living in Seattle. At 14, she studied under famed flamenco dancer José Greco and then entered the Orange County Ballet Theater in Fullerton at 15. But at age 17 Owen was forced to forgo the rigors of serious dancing based on an injury, so she redirected her energies to music, joining a popular show band that often played in Las Vegas, who needed a choreographer and singer, then onto developing her unique talents to mimic the human voice.

But Owen hesitated to fully exploit her talent for mimicry. "I would try to make my living in other ways, but audiences liked it and ultimately I would get booked into places because I had this piece in my act where I would do these imitations," she says. "After awhile, I began to realize that this is what I'm here for. This is something that not everybody can do, and people like it. So I'm going to give them what they like!"

Owen's im-pressions are pegged on comedy, but the talent which is displayed is serious busi-ness. And the crowd can sense it when Owen sings as Patsy Cline, Judy Garland or Loretta Lynne. In her classic ankle-length Loretta-style country dress, Bethany Owen sings "Coal Miner's Daughter" with an almost-eerie resemblance to the legendary country music queen.

This element of being able to capture the emotion in every character Owen brings to the stage is this reason for the on-going extension of 'ONE VOICE' at the Horizon Casino Resort.

So catch this two-time winner for "Best Female Voice Impressionist" - Las Vegas NV, in her award winning, one-woman show "ONE VOICE" performing at the Horizon Casino Golden Cabaret Showroom and take a look at the zany and fun side of celebrity personalities through the use of comedic parody and musical vocal tributes to some of the world's most legendary female superstars of our time - and with almost 400 voice impressions in Owen's roster, you'll never know who might show up next?

"ONE VOICE" starring Voice Impressionist, Bethany Owen performs every Friday through Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Golden Cabaret Showroom inside the Horizon casino Resort. General $34 / Teen $17 (Senior and Group discounts available)

Fly Fishing

Victor Babbit

E/C Caddis sizes 14-18, Yellow Stimulators sizes 14-16. Hoppers are just filling in....

West Carson River Fishing Report – Currently flows are at 60+ cfs.

The West Carson has been stocked. The flows are still great and should stay that way through September. Dry fly fishing in the evenings has been best but also working during the day as well. Nymphing has been the way to go with Small Stoneflies, Caddis, and Mayfly patterns. Nymphs- Fox's Poopah tan 14-18, Stonefly's size 10-14, Mayfly's black and olive 14-18, Pheasant Tails 14-20. Streamers-Buggers in olive, white and black, Wool-Head Sculpins, Crystal Buggers, Meat Whistle olive and black. The pocket water in the canyon is getting better and the upper sections have been good as well. The meadow needs a stealthy approach but is holding some nice fish!

West Walker River Fishing Report- Currently flows are at 225+ cfs.

Nymphing has been the way to go with Small Stoneflies, Caddis, and Mayfly patterns. Nymphs- Fox's Poopah tan 14-18, Stonefly's size 10-14, Mayfly's black and olive 14-18, Pheasant Tails 14-20. Dry Flies in the evening should be going off, look for Caddis and Little Yellow Sallies to be coming off. Streamers-Buggers in olive, white and black, Wool-Head Sculpins, Crystal Buggers, Meat Whistle olive and black.

East Walker River Fishing Report- Flows are 300+ cfs.

The River is in great shape and fishing well! The flows are perfect for summer fishing and the temperatures are staying fishable until the early afternoon. As usual, try to quit fishing when the temps hit the upper 60's. A Thermometer is a must if you want to protect the fish! They will still eat above 70 degrees of water temperature but the stress level will kill them. Small flies are still working the best in the upper sections but as you make your way into Nevada the bugs are getting bigger. Streamer fishing is tops if you want the chance to get a Bigger fish. Caddis, Yellow Sallies, Golden Stones and Midges as well as San Juan Worms, Prince Nymphs, Larger Hares Ears for the basics. Big, Dry and Orange will work on the surface with a dropper! Things haven't changed much except the fishing has gotten better in the Nevada sections!

Little Truckee River Fishing Report- Flows are 166+ cfs.

Flows are great for summer fishing! Look for small Stoneflies, Drakes, PMDs and Small Midge Patterns working well this time of year. Nymphs- Rainbow Warriors in Black and Red sizes 18-20, WD-40's grey and olive 18-22, Barr's Emergers 18-20, Wier's Sprinkle's 18-20 and don't forget the San Juan Worm in Tan or Red. Dries- Try Para Adams 18-22, Black Cripples, Beetles, Ants and PMD's in the Orange color pallet. Spinners in the evenings!

Truckee River (Ca) Fishing Report- Flows on the Truckee are below 287 cfs near the town of Truckee, 400+ cfs below Boca Bridge.

Prime conditions for the Truckee right now! Fish are eating dries as well as Nymphs. A morning fishery for the most part with the mid-days slowing until evening. Caddis, Caddis and more Caddis with Little Yellow Sallies around. PMD's, BWO's, and Golden Stones as well. San Juan Worms, Prince Nymphs and Streamers for the Basics. Look for the colder water sections or the sections that have more water movement which creates oxygen as well as cover for the fish during the mid-day. Tributaries to the Truckee add cooler water as well and can fish great right below where they come in!

Truckee River (Nv) Fishing Report- Flows on the Truckee in Nevada are 400+ cfs

Flows have finally hit the right level and the Fishing is on! Nymphing in the morning to mid day with Dry Fly action in the evening (Verdi area). Nymphs- Stoneflies 8-12, Mayfly patterns 12-16, Flashback PT's 10-16 (deadly on this side of the river!) Caddis Poopah 12-18. Dry Flies, E/C Caddis 12-16, Parachute Adams 14-18, and Little Yellow Sallies 10-16. Streamer action is picking up and is your best shot at one the Nevada Toads!, Streamers-Buggers in olive, white and black, Wool-Head Sculpins, Crystal Buggers, Meat Whistle olive and black, and of course the Crawdad!!! Ziggy Marley Live @ MontBleu September 25

Ziggy Marley, five-time Grammy-Award winning musician, will perform in Lake Tahoe inside the MontBleu Theatre at MontBleu Casino Resort, Sunday, September 25, 2011, along with special guest, Trevor Hall. A special ticket pre-sale of $30 will go on-sale, Saturday, August 6, at 10a. Pre-sale tickets can be purchased until Sunday, August 21 at midnights. General admission tickets will be available for $35 after pre-sale ends. Tickets will be available by calling MontBleu, 775-588-3515, by visiting the Box Office, or online at www.ticketmaster.com

Ziggy Marley is a Jamaican musician and leader of the band. He is the oldest son of famed Reggae musician, Bob Marley. He has established his presence on the public stage for over a quarter-century. Which is why, perhaps, there's a wisp of irony in naming his new album Wild and Free, given not only the focused writing and recording of his fourth solo studio album, but also Ziggy's concurrent involvement in an ambitious tour stretching through this spring and summer, as well as other projects in the realm of publishing and filmmaking. And with the arrival of a new baby requiring his attention, it's remarkable Ziggy is able to capture the energy to keep his sound wild and free! His new album was released this past June.

Ziggy became politically active, working with the United Nations and creating a record label called Ghetto Youths Crew. A solo album, Dragonfly was released on April 15, 2003. On July 2, 2006, his second solo album, Love Is My Religion, was released on his independent record company Tuff Gong Worldwide. This album won a Grammy for best Reggae album and this was Ziggy's 4th Grammy win. On May 5, 2009, his third solo children's album Family Time, was released on his independent record company Tuff Gong Worldwide. Family Time features Family and Friends, Rita Marley, Cedella Marley, Judah Marley, Paul Simon, Willie Nelson, Jack Johnson, Toots Hibbert, Laurie Berkner, Elizabeth Mitchell and more. This album won a Grammy for "Best Musical Album for Children".

Opening up for Ziggy Marley is singer/songwriter, Trevor Hall, whose sunny, reggae-infused pop sound draws equally from folk, reggae, and hip-hop. His gritty vocal style has been compared to Dave Matthews, and his uniquely spiritual approach to pop music has earned him comparisons to Bob Marley.

Trevor has worked with such producers as John Alagia (John Mayer, Jason Mraz, Dave Matthews) and The Laboriel Brothers (Sting, Paul McCartney), has appeared at the famous Lollapalooza festival and has toured with such acts as Stevie Nicks, Jason Mraz, The Wailers, and Ben Harper. Trevor is a musician's musician, as exemplified by Colbie Caillat who claims "Trevor has one of the most beautiful voices I have ever heard."

Born in South Carolina and raised in California, Trevor Hall developed an affinity for summery acoustic music, from the beachside ambiance of Jack Johnson to the leisurely stroll of Bob Marley. Having spent his teenage years at a boarding school for the arts, Hall dedicated his life to music upon his high-school graduation. He self-released Lace Up Your Shoes in 2004; two years later, the teenaged Hall prepared for his major-label debut with Geffen Records. The Rascals Have Returned, an introductory EP produced by John Alagia, featured a soothing mix of reggae, folk, and roots rock.

Hall continued to tour, performing shows alongside the likes of Ben Harper, Matisyahu, and the Wailers. He also returned to the studio to record a self-titled sophomore album, which emphasized the artist's reggae influences upon its release in 2009. The album embodies a soulfulness, depth and passion far beyond the artist's 22 years. His youthful exterior belies the depth and intensity of an old soul. Trevor's music is an unconventional mix of acoustic rock and reggae that serves as a vibrant landscape for his thought-provoking, inspiring lyrics. Produced by Marshall Altman (Matt Nathanson, Kate Voegele, Marc Broussard), Trevor Hall encompasses the entire cosmology of this one-of-a-kind young artist, from the opening "Internal Heights," with its sitar-accented electro-groove, which recalls Peter Gabriel at his most expansive, to the meditative and intimate closer "Many Roads," in which Trevor seems to be channeling his primary inspiration, Bob Marley. Indeed, "Many Roads" could stand as Trevor's "One Love." "We've heard there are many paths, but it turns out they all lead to the same place," he says of the song's ultimate point.

Doors open at 7p. Show starts 8p. Tickets are $35 and available at all Ticketmaster outlets, and at the MontBleu Box Office, or online www.ticketmaster.com. You can also purchase by phone by calling MontBleu Resort, 775-588-3515.

Signature Cocktail Contest

Barton Foundation's Annual
"Signature" Cocktail Contest
Thursday, Sept. 8, 5:30 to 8 p.m.
Riva Grill

Come, one, come all! Must be 21-years-of age or older ... to Barton Foundation's annual Signature Cocktail Contest on Thursday, Sept. 8 from 5:30 to 8 p.m. at Riva Grill. This contest "kicks off" the third annual Festival of Trees and Lights, held the first weekend in December at Montbleu Resort Casino & Spa.

Local bartenders will put on their best faces, create delicious winter cocktail concoctions and add their own exciting flare. Enjoy appetizers by Riva Grill, taste specialty cocktails by the "mixologists," enjoy music from Cool Black Kettle, watch local celebrities ham it up while they vote for "Best Cocktail," and cast your own ballot for "Most Congenial Bartender." Area bartenders participating in the contest include Blue Water Bistro, Capisce Handmade Italian Cuisine and Spirits, Chart House, Edgewood Tahoe, Harrah's Hotel and Casino, Riva Grill Restaurant on The Lake and Lakeside Inn.

Last year's event drew more than 125 attendees and raised $2,000. The proceeds from the Cocktail Contest and the Festival of Trees and Lights will help fund the $800,000 expansion of the Clinic, which will allow for a larger waiting room, more patient exam rooms, and allow Barton to meet the growing needs of the South Lake Tahoe community.

Chip Norton from Brooks' Sports Bar at Edgewood prepared the 2010 winning cocktail, the "Nutty Mulligan," which was served at the Barton Foundation's Gala last year.

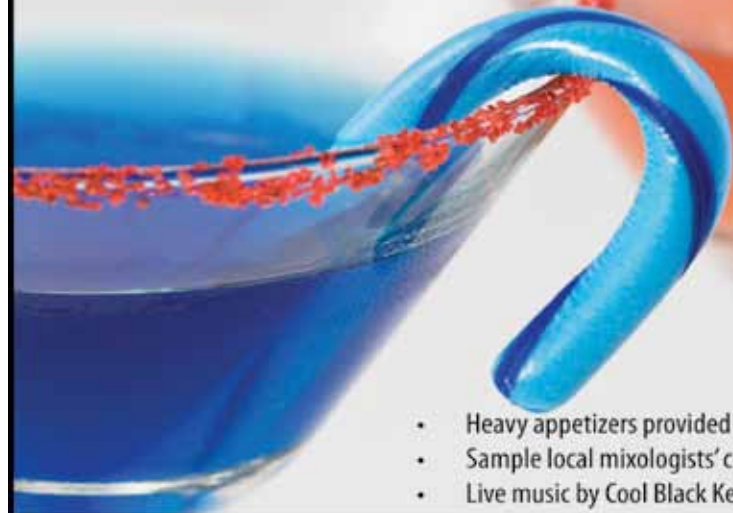

Anna Siudzik from Tep's Villa Roma was 2010's most congenial bartender with $113 in tips, which she happily donated back to the cause. Many other bartenders got into the act and donated their tips to help fund the clinic expansion also, including Norton.

"Everyone was so generous, not only was it a really fun event, it was a true outpouring of support from our community for our community," said Kindle Craig, Executive Director of the Barton Foundation. "We are excited about this year's event and look forward to seeing new creations and kicking off our Festival of Trees and Lights – its going to be simply magical this year!"

Tickets are $25 through Sept. 7 and $30 at the door and can be purchased on-line at festivaloftreeslaketahoe.org or call (530) 543-5614. Admission includes a sample serving of every drink and appetizers.

Opening up for Ziggy Marley is singer/songwriter, Trevor Hall, whose sunny, reggae-infused pop sound draws equally from folk, reggae, and hip-hop. His gritty vocal style has been compared to Dave Matthews, and his uniquely spiritual approach to pop music has earned him comparisons to Bob Marley.

Trevor has worked with such producers as John Alagia (John Mayer, Jason Mraz, Dave Matthews) and The Laboriel Brothers (Sting, Paul McCartney), has appeared at the famous Lollapalooza festival and has toured with such acts as Stevie Nicks, Jason Mraz, The Wailers, and Ben Harper. Trevor is a musician's musician, as exemplified by Colbie Caillat who claims "Trevor has one of the most beautiful voices I have ever heard."
